RE: REDMOON MISSION

Your Mission is to travel to Mars.

Assume the role of one of three astronauts sent to Mars to explore the mysterious Cydonia region, best known for its mile-long land formations thought to resemble a humanoid face. Upon entering the Martian atmosphere, however, your spaceship is severely damaged by an unexpected force tield. With your ship crippled and tellow crew members critically injured, your journey becomes a struggle for survival.

Good luck and Godspeed.
